

Leeds Trinity Students' Union Student Data Privacy Statement

Introduction

Leeds Trinity Students' Union ("we", "our" or "us") promises to respect any personal data you share with us, or that we get from other organisations and keep it safe. We aim to be clear when we collect your data and not do anything you wouldn't reasonably expect.

Developing a better understanding of our members through your personal data allows us make better decisions, communicate more efficiently and, ultimately, helps us to reach our goal of having a positive impact with every Leeds Trinity student.

Where we collect information about you from

We collect information in the following ways:

When you become a MEMBER

Each year that you enroll on a Leeds Trinity University accredited course you automatically become a member of the Leeds Trinity Students' Union. In order for us to be aware that you are a member we ask you to 'Opt in' to share your details with us when you register on EVision. This allows the University to then share your details with us so that we can verify you are a student and you can take place in our activity.

When you give it to us DIRECTLY

You may give us your information in order to sign up to a student group, for one of our events, undertake research activities, use our advice service, purchase our products or communicate with us. When you give us this information we take responsibility for looking after it and we will cross reference this data against our register of members.

When you give it to us INDIRECTLY

Your information may be shared with us by independent organisations, the University or event partners. These independent third parties will only do so when you have indicated that you have given consent to share this data with us. You should check their Privacy Policy when you provide your information to understand fully how they will process your data.

When you give permission to OTHER ORGANISATIONS to share

We may combine information you provide to us with information available from external sources in order to gain a better understanding of our members to improve our communication methods, products and services.

The information we get from other organisations may depend on your privacy settings or the responses you give, so you should regularly check them. This information comes from the following sources:

Third party organisations

You may have provided permission for a company or other organisation to share your data with third parties such as the Students' Union. This could be when you buy a product or service, register for an online competition or sign up with a comparison site.

Social Media

Depending on your settings or the privacy policies for social media and messaging services like Facebook, WhatsApp, Instagram, Snap Chat or Twitter, you might give us permission to access information from those accounts or services.

Information available publicly

This may include information found in places such as the Charity Commission and information that has been published in articles/ newspapers.

When we collect it as you use our WEBSITES

Like most websites, we use "cookies" to help us make our site – and the way you use it – better. Cookies mean that a website will remember you. They're small text files that sites transfer to your computer (or phone or tablet). They make interacting with a website faster and easier – for example by automatically filling your name and address in text fields. There are more details at www.ltsu.co.uk/privacy

In addition, the type of device you're using to access our website and the settings on that device may provide us with information about your device, including what type of device it is, what specific device you have and what operating system you're using. Your device manufacturer or operating system provider will have more details about what information your device makes available to us.

When you BUY A PRODUCT from us

To place an order with us online, registration is required. At the point of registration, we request certain information including your name, delivery address and email address. This information is required to enable us to process your order and notify you of its progress. Once an order has been placed, we may contact you by email to confirm your order details and again once your order has been accepted and despatched. Should we need to contact you for any reason regarding your order, we will use the email address registered to your account, or the telephone number where provided. We also ask if you will provide us with your Student ID number when you shop in store, this allows us to track the products you purchase, provide better customer service standards and develop the product range we offer to students. Should you purchase something in person from us then you are under no obligation to provide us with this information.

What personal data we collect and how we use it

The type and quantity of information we collect and how we use it depends on why you are providing it.

Our Members

If you are one of our members the University, in response to their obligations to you, provide us with a set of key information you provided at enrollment. This is done on an 'opt in' basis which you can update at any time via evision. When you use our services or participate in one of our activities we will use this information to provide the best possible standards of administration and communication.

In addition when you attend an event, join a student group or use one of our services we may ask for additional information such as:

- Your date of birth to ensure compliance with age-related laws
- Your bank details to facilitate payments
- Information relating to your health if you are taking part in a high risk activity
- Any disabilities so that we can provide assistance where needed

We will mainly use your data to:

- Provide you with the services, products or information you asked for
- Administer your membership
- Keep a record of your relationship with us
- Ensure we know how you prefer to be contacted
- Understand how we can improve our services, products or information
- Register your membership with National Governing Bodies such as BUCS

Building profiles of members and targeting communications

We use profiling and screening techniques to ensure communications are relevant and timely, and to provide an improved experience for our members. Profiling also allows us to target our resources effectively, which members consistently tell us is a key priority for them. We do this because it allows us to understand the background of the people who study at the University and helps us to deliver appropriate services and information to members who need it.

When building a profile we may analyse geographic, demographic and other information relating to you in order to better understand your interests and preferences in order to contact you with the most relevant communications. Your data would only ever be analysed or profiled through encrypted and protected data processes, which only ever identifies broad statistics. In doing this, we may use additional information from third party sources when it is available.

How we keep your data safe and who has access

Personal data collected and processed by us may be shared with Students' Union employees and volunteers and under strictly controlled conditions the following groups where necessary:

- Contractors
- Advisors
- Agents
- Service provider partners

When we allow access to your information, we will always have complete control of what they see, what they are allowed to do with it and how long they can see it. We do not sell or share your personal information for other organisations to use.

We undertake regular reviews of who has access to information that we hold to ensure that your information is only accessible by appropriately trained staff, volunteers and contractors.

Some of our suppliers run their operations outside the European Economic Area (EEA). Although they may not be subject to the same data protection laws as companies based in the UK, we will take steps to make sure they provide an adequate level of protection in accordance with UK data protection law. By submitting your personal information to us you agree to this transfer, storing or processing at a location outside the EEA.

We may need to disclose your details if required to the police, regulatory bodies or legal advisors.

We will only ever share your data in other circumstances if we have your explicit and informed consent.

Marketing & Communications Preferences

Membership Communications

As a member you have the opportunity to 'opt in' to hearing from us about the products and services we offer, what we're doing to represent you and opportunities that might be of interest to you. Occasionally, we may include information from partner organisations, our own social enterprises or organisations who support us in these communications.

Direct Marketing

As a charity we need to fundraise to provide the services we offer to Leeds Trinity University students. We send marketing material to our members where you have told us that we can. We do not sell or share personal details to third parties for the purposes of marketing.

Controlling what you want to hear about

We make it easy for you to tell us how you want us to communicate, in a way that suits you. Our forms have clear marketing preference questions and we include information on how to opt out when we send you marketing. If you don't want to hear from us, that's fine. Just let us know when you provide your data, update your communication settings under your profile on our website or contact us at LTSUHR@leedstrinity.ac.uk

Keeping your information up to date

We mostly use the record of members provided by the Leeds Trinity University to maintain accurate data about you as described above. We really appreciate it if you let us know if your contact details change.

Understanding the detail of our data security measures

When we process your data we will have already carefully assessed the lawful justification for doing so, the parameters in which the data is processed, the length of time the data is held for, the secure storage of your data and undertaken impact assessments to ensure your rights are delivered.

The Students' Union operates Data protection training for all employees and volunteers.

The Students' Union does not store any sensitive card data on our systems following online transactions. All payments take place through our OneVoice partner who support our website.

Your right to know what data we hold about you, make changes or ask us to stop using your data

You have a right to ask us to stop processing your personal data, and if it's not necessary for the purpose you provided it to us for (e.g. processing your membership or registering you for an event) we will do so. Contact us at LTSUHR@leedstrinity.ac.uk if you have any concerns.

You have a right to ask for a copy of the information we hold about you. If there are any discrepancies in the information we provide, please let us know and we will correct them.

If you want to access your information, you must complete Subject Access Request Form with a description of the information you want to see and the required proof of your identity by post to the General Manager, Leeds Trinity Students' Union, Brownberrie Lane, Horsforth, LS18 5HD. We do not accept these requests by email so we can ensure that we only provide personal data to the right person.

If you have any questions please send these to LTSUHR@leedstrinity.ac.uk, and for further information see the Information Commissioner's guidance here.

Changes to this statement

We may change this Privacy Statement from time to time. If we make any significant changes in the way we treat your personal information we will make this clear on our Website or by contacting you directly.

If you have any questions, comments or suggestions, please let us know by contacting LTSUHR@leedstrinity.ac.uk
